The purpose of the Colleagues for Library Excellence Award is to recognize a person or persons who support the library media services in an exemplary manner to the point that without the service there would be a void had that service not been rendered. This award is for personnel who work directly within the GKCASL membership area and may be teachers, building and district administrators, district level library coordinators/directors, or clerical personnel working directly in the school environment.

Describe your nominee's qualifications for such an award. Please limit your remarks to two typewritten pages, double-spaced. Then request two additional letters of support to be sent to the address below. The nominator must be a member of GKCASL. The written letters of support do not have to be submitted by GKCASL members. Please note that the committee reserves the privilege to recommend that no citation be awarded this year.
